

The Remake Learning Network ignites engaging, relevant, and equitable learning practices in support of young people navigating rapid social and technological change. To help create more equitable learning opportunities for students across our region, the network supports learners in rural communities through outreach to and inclusion of rural-based educators, schools, and organizations.

To learn more about Remake Learning in Rural Communities: remakelearning.org/rural/

100

Rural stakeholders joined the network since late 2018.

350+

Rural-based schools, districts, OST, art spaces, community organizations, museums, and libraries reached out to.

21

Rural Meetups and Lunch & Learns across SW PA and WV (in-person and virtual).

330

Rural stakeholders connected through Meetups and Lunch & Learn events.

73

Remake Learning Days events across SW PA and WV in 2019.